

The MacDiarmid Institute
for Advanced Materials and Nanotechnology

in association with The Nelson Science Society presents:

Women in Nanoscience

Little materials, big stories

Come hear nanoscientists discuss their lives and work

These are personal stories, told by women scientists from the MacDiarmid Institute. Each talk will take you on a tour of the realities of life as a scientist and the exciting research in the MacDiarmid Institute - from Chemistry to Physics to Engineering to Biology and beyond. These talks are suitable for all levels and ages.

Nelson: Monday 4 September | The Suter Theatre
208 Bridge Street, Nelson | 6:30pm

Dr NATALIE PLANK

Dr Natalie Plank is a Principal Investigator with the MacDiarmid Institute and Senior Lecturer in Physics at Victoria University of Wellington. Natalie's research interests are in the area of nanomaterial devices for biosensing applications.

Dr RENEE GOREHAM

Dr Renee Goreham is a post-doctoral researcher with the MacDiarmid Institute at the Victoria University of Wellington. Renee's research interests are on combining nanoscience and biology for biomedical applications.
